IN HANDS OF A MANIAC

PATROLMAN WOODWARD HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

Lewis A. Cathiser, 1423 Everett street, fought the doctors who had been summoned to relieve him, and had it not been for the timely arrival of Patrolmen Green and Woodward and Bicyclemen Askins and Duncan serious injury would have been done the doctors.

Cathiser, it is said, had been jilted by his sweetheart and had attempted to shoot himself early in the evening, but on account of the poor condition of the revolver was unable to do so. He then purchased a quantity of morphine and at 2 o'clock in the morning took about six grains of the drug and lay down on his bed to die. His mother later discovered his condition and called for a doctor. Drs. Seaton and Newcomb, of the City Dispensary, responded to the call and administered antidotes, which soon revived the man. Suddenly he became violent and attempted to kill the doctors. At this point Patrolmen Woodward and Green appeared and a scuffle began. Cathiser, who was armed with a revolver, fired a shot at the patrolmen, and succeeded in throwing him to the floor, where he clung to him like a wild beast. Bicyclemen Askins and Duncan, in the meantime, had been called, and they arrived just in time to save the life of the prostrate patrolman. It took the combined effort of all present to place the man in a truck, and he was taken to the police station, where he was locked up for assault and battery.

Cathiser, it is said, is insane from the effects of a blow he received on the head some time ago, and an inquest will be held on his case.

PRIEST READS PAPAL BULL

BENEDICTION OF PIUS X CONVEYED TO THE NEW SODALITY.

Seventy-five young women enrolled at Holy Cross Church in a solemn service.

An impressive scene was enacted last night in Holy Cross Catholic Church, on Oriental street, when seventy-five young women were enrolled in the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The enrollment was the culmination of a three days' mission conducted by the Rev. Father Laycock, a missionary of this city.

The service began last night with the singing of vespers. Father Laycock followed with a lengthy sermon on the purpose of the society, dwelling on the history of the Virgin Mary and her Son. Father Laycock then asked each candidate to pledge herself to the Blessed Virgin Mary through her life, after which the Papal bull was read giving power for the establishment of the sodality. Father Laycock read the first bull to a sodality of Pope Pius X, in which the latter named the Rev. Father Wade as chaplain of the newly-organized society. At the completion of the reading of the bull the young women in concert recited prayers, after which Father Laycock administered the Papal benediction, for which he was given authority on the receipt of the bull. The young women then walked to the chancel rail, where they received ribbons and badges as insignia of their membership in the society. Benediction of the blessed sacrament closed the service.

For the past three days the young women candidates have been in retreat. They spent the time in prayer, meditation, and in the study of the lives of the saints. The women, after confessing their sins Saturday night, approached the communion table yesterday.

The organization of the sodality in Holy Cross parish was one of much interest among the parishioners. At the service last night the church was well filled and all were impressed with the solemn service.

WILL GRANT FRANCHISE

MAYOR AND WORKS BOARD DECIDE TO LET IN NEW RAILROAD.

Contract with Indianapolis, Logansport & Chicago Company May Be Signed This Morning.

NO GENERAL TRACK ELEVATION

TRACKS MUST BE RAISED OVER THIRTIETH ST. AT RIVERSIDE.

Elevation Also Provided for at Douglas and Giesendorf-Safety Gates and Watchmen.

At this morning's session of the Board of Public Works a franchise will be granted to the Indianapolis, Logansport & Chicago Railroad. At a conference between the board and Mayor Bookwalter, held yesterday, it was determined that the application shall be acted upon favorably.

The terms of the franchise will be that the road will be permitted to enter the city upon existing grades, with the exception that at Thirtieth street the tracks shall be elevated so as to provide for an entrance into Riverside Park without a grade crossing. Also the tracks shall be elevated at the crossing of Douglas and Giesendorf streets. At all the other crossings watchmen and safety gates shall be provided from 6 a. m. until 8 p. m., and between the hours of 8 p. m. and 6 a. m. electric alarm bells shall be installed as warning signals.

WHEN OTHER ROADS AGREE. Another important specification is that whenever a comprehensive plan of track elevation is drawn up the tracks of the present road shall be elevated in their entirety, that from the south line of Twenty-first street to the north line of Indiana avenue the present dikes shall be widened and strengthened in order to absolutely prevent an overflow of that portion of the city known as Cerealestown; that the right to cross Riverside Park is granted subject to such conditions and stipulations as may be fixed by the Park Board, thus leaving the board the power to fix the conditions of the use of that portion of the park land which may be necessary for the right of way of the road.

It is believed these conditions are acceptable to the railroad company and that it will sign the contract without demur. The officers declared that if the city insisted on track elevation they wanted no franchise, and as the general sentiment was in favor of the admission of the road the city authorities decided on a compromise which they believe will be acceptable.

GOLDEN RULE IN POLITICS

THE REV. M. B. HYDE DECLARES PRINCIPLE IS PRACTICAL.

Fletcher-Avenue M. E. Church Pastor Thinks Time Has Come for a Moral Regeneration.

"The Golden Rule as Applied to the Government of the City," was the subject of the Rev. M. B. Hyde's sermon last night at the Fletcher-Avenue M. E. Church. "Right is practicable, and whatever is right is practicable," was the principle he emphasized.

He said in part: "A man on the street the other day asked me for whom I expected to vote at the coming election. I gave him my answer and he replied: 'You will lose your vote.' I replied: 'You can't lose your vote when you vote for principle.' He answered: 'The principle is all right, but it is not practicable.'"

"This is the kind of sophistry the devil has furnished the world for centuries. It seems to me that the golden rule is a complete answer. This set out a principle—the principle of contributing to the welfare of men. Cicero said: 'There is no way by which men can approach nearer to the gods than by contributing to the welfare of their fellow creatures.' Foremost and grandest amid the teachings of Christ were these truths: 'There is but one God. All men are the sons of God. The promulgation of these truths changed the face of the world and enlarged the moral circle to the confines of the habitable globe. Thus, wherever there exists a man there is a brother, and we are bound to that brotherhood by an imperishable principle that is as practical as the sunlight. Our aim is to assert that principle. Right is practical. No sane man would say for a moment that principle, as applied to individuals, is not practical. If good and practical for two people, why not good and practical for two hundred or two thousand thousand people?'"

"But if people and officers of the law close their eyes to its provisions, its power is diverted or neutralized, and then impractical and devilish things result, and if any effort is made to restore order out of chaos and do it thoroughly, you are told you are impractical."

"For my part," continued Mr. Hyde, "I believe in the times in which I live and in the city in which I live and that the hand on the dial points to the hour when the citizens of our fair city shall strike the blow for liberty. Our city is marching on and humanity, by the lift and lead of his spirit, sweeps forward to victory. I am led to say that the most impractical thing results from the failure to adhere to principle. We forget the result we desire and we are remote, but we keep it rooted by our impractical doing of things to-day. We hope to neutralize our evil by another evil. Counter irritation may do in therapeutics, but not in handling great social questions such as arise in the government of cities and states."

CAUGHT RED-HANDED.

George Hendrix Arrested While Stealing Sunday Papers from Doorsteps.

George Hendrix, a young man living at 181 Oliver avenue, was arrested yesterday morning by Bicyclemen Askins and Duncan for the theft of a number of Sunday papers. When placed under arrest Hendrix, it is said, had over forty stolen papers in his possession, and he admitted the theft. The bicyclemen were lying in wait for him, and caught him in the act of stealing papers from the doorsteps of subscribers. He will be given a hearing in the Police Court this morning.

SHOT CRAPS ON SIDEWALK.

Police Make Raid and Arrest One Negro, the Others Escaping.

A crap game on the sidewalk in front of Mike Boylan's saloon, at Capitol avenue and Merrill street, last night was raided by Bicyclemen Askins and Duncan, and one lonely negro was caught. Six of the players escaped, and the police, it is said, had a lively time for a few moments. The first impulse of the crap shooters was to fight, but they changed their minds and ran.

Brick Put Him Out.

Lewis Brooks, a colored man living at 123 South East street, was picked up in the rear of Sector's barrel house on West Washington street last night in an unconscious condition by Bicyclemen Trimpe and Lowe. Some one had hit him on the head with a brick and he was lying on a number of scarp wounds. Drs. Seaton and Cunningham, of the City Dispensary, dressed the wounds and the bicyclemen later locked him up pending their investigation as to who threw the brick.

SCHWITZER BEAT HIS WIFE.

Then He Told the Police It Was None of Their Business.

Henry Schwitzer, 957 Huron street, was arrested last night by Bicyclemen Trimpe and Lowe and locked up at the police station on a charge of disturbing the peace. Schwitzer, it is said, beat his wife until her screams attracted the attention of crowds on the street, and when the door was burst open by the passers-by she rushed out of the house and staggered into the arms of one of the police officers in an exhausted condition. When asked by the police as to whether or not he had beaten his wife Schwitzer told them that it was none of their business, and his wife, through fear, refused to make any statement. All the neighbors of the Schwitzer family, however, stated that they would appear in court this morning and testify.

DAMAGE SUIT STIRS CITY

CHARLES A. MECKER TALKS ABOUT OIL COMPANY LITIGATION.

He Declares Wabash Oil and Gas Concern Is a Solvent Corporation, with Valuable Stock.

Charles A. Mecker, a well-known business man of Lafayette, who was at the Columbia Club last evening, says that nothing occurring in his city for several months has occasioned such a stir as the damage suit filed last week by Postmaster A. S. Peacock, of Attica, against George M. Timberlake, a cigar dealer of Lafayette, and the directors of the Wabash Oil and Gas Company.

"The charge is made by Mr. Peacock," said Mr. Mecker, "that the Wabash Oil and Gas Company is insolvent and that the stock purchased by him some time ago is worthless. He avers that he paid $1250 for 5000 shares of stock, which were sold to him by his cousin, Mr. Timberlake, and he alleges that he has been damaged to the extent of $800."

"The officers and directors of the company were much surprised when they learned of the suit, and we stoutly deny the allegations. According to our figures the actual value of the stock at the present time is nearly 35 cents a share, and Mr. Peacock paid but 25 cents, according to his complaint. The stockholders of the company are among the most substantial and influential business men in Lafayette. The company was organized two years ago, with a capital stock of $1,000,000, full paid and non-assessable. It has valuable holdings in four counties in Indiana, and last winter disposed of its leases in Delaware county to the Muncie Gas, Light and Fuel Company for $100,000. The directors are Isaac M. Sowers, Chicago; Hiram Kirin, Delphi; N. W. Box, Lafayette; Prof. Win Test, of Purdue University; C. E. Ruger, of Muncie; Jacob M. Marks, of Lafayette, and myself."

"We feel that an injustice has been done the company by the stories published in some of the newspapers. We are not in any way responsible for the actions of Mr. Timberlake, as he is not acting as an agent for the company. Any stockholder may dispose of his holdings in a legitimate manner, as we believe Mr. Timberlake did. But the impression has gone out that the company is insolvent. The value of the land holdings of the company is $475,000, against the capital stock of $1,000,000, making the actual value of the stock 24 and 74-100 cents per share. The books of the company are at all times open to stockholders of record, and any one presenting proper certificate may make examination of the books themselves, at the company's present office in Muncie."

Mr. Mecker added that he was on his way to Muncie to let the contract for the drilling of twenty-five wells on the company's property.

FLESH LITERALLY COOKED

EARL VAN SICKLE TERRIBLY BURNED BY GASOLINE EXPLOSION.

He Filled Street Lamp Too Full and Applied a Match—May Die from Burns.

Earl Van Sickle, 1116 Chestnut street, was frightfully burned by a gasoline explosion while lighting a street lamp at Highland Park yesterday evening.

Van Sickle is employed to fill the lamps and light them every evening, and yesterday, as was his custom, he filled the lamp at Highland Park, but carelessly allowed it to get too full. He applied a match and the explosion followed. His clothing was saturated with the flaming fluid, and in agony he tore his coat and shirt from his back and writhed on the ground. Passers-by were attracted and soon the flames were extinguished, but Van Sickle was so badly burned that he was almost unconscious. The City Dispensary ambulance was called, and he was taken to that institution, where his burns were dressed by the Dispensary staff.

From his shoulders to his hips he was burned so badly that his flesh was literally cooked on his bones, and his right arm was charred and blackened. It is feared that he inhaled some of the flames, as he complained of severe pains in his lungs. He was taken to his home in the ambulance, and at a late hour last night his condition was reported serious.
